

Building Effective Global Teams

WHO WILL BENEFIT FROM THIS WORKSHOP?

This workshop is meant for those who lead teams remotely and across borders.

WHY SHOULD YOU ATTEND?

You will be able to:

- Articulate the challenges and pitfalls of working with remote and culturally diverse teams.
- Increase your understanding of your own and other team members' cultural orientation.
- Understand how cultural “disconnects” can impact results.
- To identify how managers can lead and manage as effectively as possible at a distance:
 - how to built effective remote and culturally diverse teams?
 - how to maintain a collaborative spirit both with an effective coaching approach and the right use of collaborative tools?

METHODOLOGY

- Group work to encourage the sharing of experiences.
- Discussions & cases.
- Participation lectures with practical ideas on managing team members with different cultural backgrounds working remotely.

CONTENT

After an introduction the focus is on sharing experiences on managing people remotely across cultures.

How to manage the challenges to lead such a team effectively is then developed alternatively looking at the different dilemmas typical for remote & culturally diverse teams.

The use and abuse of collaborative tools precedes the final topic on how to built successful global (remote) teams.
